FOREWORD

I've seen the great Sky revolution from both sides in my time in the business – from the manager's dug-out to the pundit's chair.

And what a long way we have come as I look back to a decade or so ago when I was on the other side of the fence, an old-school boss looking in on this new kid on the block.

Like a few others I was suspicious of the ever-growing media's ideas and intentions in those days. But it has not taken me long to realise how wrong that view is.

There simply can't be a better influence on the game than Sky. The coverage, the interest, the debate, the professionalism and the sheer love of the game. I have come across it all in my new line of work.

You just have to see the talent and technology around to know that football is in safe hands when it comes to Sky. It certainly changed my mind and my attitude.

This is an era of the greatest promotion our great old game has had. All of the fresh ways of looking at the game, all of the depth we go into, but – above all – the dedication we have to covering football professionally and properly.

There has been so much ground-breaking that it is hard to keep up, but it is all based on treating football with respect and giving the public a better and more interesting insight.

Personally I really enjoy the debate we have in the studio before and after games. Of course, we don't all share the same views – it would be pretty dull if we did. But I like the fact that we can go into things and say our piece and encourage discussion.

It is a privilege to be part of something so big and so committed to being the best. I always looked for professionalism in football as a player and a manager – and I have found that at Sky.

We do it right, we take it seriously.

Enjoy this year's Sky Sports Football Yearbook, and let's hope the season ahead is as good as the last.

INTRODUCTION

The 43rd edition of the Yearbook, our tenth with sponsors Sky Sports, gives full coverage of the Euro 2012 competition with both the qualifying stages and the finals in Poland and Ukraine included. With the next major tournament now looking ahead to the World Cup 2014 in Brazil, there are results from around the world for the qualifying stages up to the time of going to press, plus the fixtures for the European countries starting their preliminaries during 2012–13.

While the game at the highest international level is well catered for in the new edition, both the Champions League and Europa League have their usual comprehensive details included with results, goalscorers, attendances and full-line ups for the qualifying rounds and also from the respective group stages onwards.

The Daily Round-up has carried on expanding as an informative, detailed log of the previous season's events, but it is not designed to pinpoint specific items at a glance. This is not its function, but to give extra weight to the concept, the concise feature entitled Cups and Ups and Downs Diary, that proved popular when introduced for last year's edition, can again be found at the end of the June entry for the Daily Round-up with dates of those events affecting cup finals, plus promotion and relegation issues.

The 2011–12 campaign arguably provided the most exciting climax to the race for the Premier League title. It proved a fitting end to the league's 20th season and also recorded a record number of 1,066 goals. There were plenty of high-scoring matches as well as a sprinkling of goalless draws; indeed a cross-section of everything that occurs in a season. All these facets are reproduced in the pages devoted to not only the Premier League, but the three Football League competitions, too, as well as all major allied cup competitions.

While transfer fees are invariably those reported at the time and rarely given as official figures, the edition reflects those listed at the time. For the new season, too, at least one club is likely to play at a new venue – Rotherham United. As for Newcastle United, though the ground remains the same, the name was changed to Sports Direct Arena, but is still referred to as St James' Park by the club's supporters.

The Players Directory and its accompanying A to Z index enables the reader to quickly find the club of any specific player. In the club-by-club pages that contain the line-ups of all league matches, appearances are split into starting line-ups and those who were brought in as substitutes. But in the Players Directory the totals show figures combined.

Throughout the book players sent off are designated thus ▪, substitutes in the club pages are 12, 13 and 14 with 15 for the substitute goalkeeper. Squad numbers are not used.

In addition to competitions already mentioned there is full coverage of Scottish Premier League and Scottish League and cup competitions. There are also sections devoted to Welsh, Irish, Women's football, the Under-21s and various other youth levels affecting UEFA, schools, reserve team, academies, referees and the leading non-league competitions as well as the work of the chaplains at clubs. The chief tournaments outside the UK at club and national level are not forgotten. The International Directory itself features Europe in some depth as well as every FIFA country's international records for the previous year.

Naturally there are international appearances and goals scored by players for England, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Wales and the Republic. For easy reference, those players making appearances and scoring goals in the season covered are picked out in bold type.

The Editors would like to extend their appreciation to the publishers Headline for excellent support in the preparation of this edition, particularly Jonathan Taylor for photographic selection throughout the book. Thanks, too, to Tony Brown for sequences and instances of match results in the Records Section, Ian Nannestad for the obituaries and as ever thanks to John English for his conscientious proof reading.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In addition the Editors are also keen to thank the following individuals and organisations for their co-operation. David Barber at the Football Association, David C. Thomson (Scottish League), Dr Malcolm Brodie, Grahame Lloyd, Rev. Nigel Sands, Ken Goldman, Marshall Gillespie, Michael Joyce, Sean Creedon, Bob Bannister, Martin Cooper, Alan Platt and Emily Kitchin (Headline).

Special mention as well for the indefatigable, ebullient and loquacious Lorraine Jerram, for her generosity, clinical expertise, constant support, determined resilience, enduring patience, endearing sincerity, perspicacity and appreciation, not to forget her unfailing humour, stoicism, quick-wit, courtesy, quiet consideration and understated authority; the consummate professional.

Finally sincere thanks to John Anderson, Simon Dunnington, Geoff Turner, Brian Tait and the staff at Wearset for their much appreciated efforts in the production of the book throughout the year.

EDITORIAL

Even before the wheel was invented, things used to revolve in cycles. So, surely one day England must win another major international tournament. Or will they? It has been a while since 1966. Moreover, as far as Euro 2012 is concerned, the feeling pre-tournament was one with no great expectations of achieving anything startling. Roy Hodgson, the new man at the steering end, had had no real quality time to implement any new, even controversial or untried ideas, having to approach it with his well known sensible, unsensational attitude to the task for which he had been taken on.

After all, he was not in charge of the qualifying campaign and had managed a couple of single goal friendly wins in the run-up to the main event in Poland and the Ukraine. But once out there and England drawing their first group match with the much fancied and confident French team that had gone 21 matches unbeaten, the attitude at home changed dramatically. Suddenly "going all the way" replaced "getting to the quarter-finals". Sadly there was little substantial evidence for such a switch to confidence, apart from after losing the lead to Sweden and conceding two goals before pulling off a victory, the first ever against that country in a competitive match – burying memories of Swedes and Turnips.

The last group fixture was against Ukraine and the hitherto suspended Wayne Rooney was back. Yet while his header could be measured in inches rather than yards, it was enough to win the match; the locals, with far more chances, merely lacked a marksman. But it mattered little, because England were now in the last eight and finishing top of the group, able to avoid Spain and play Italy instead. The media was now convincing even the most doubting of Thomases that the heartache of 46 years was in danger of being bypassed.

Fortunately, the Italians' finishing was wretched. For England, aside of a well-organised defence, any midfield effectiveness was patchy; there were too many unforced errors in conceding possession and the frailty of the attack overexposed. The counter-attacking idea – where was that one? But as long as the match went on without Italy scoring, there was always a chance, though this came after a deadlocked extra time in the penalty shoot-out with the possibility of snatching victory from the jaws of mediocrity. Usually we don't do penalties and the wheel of misfortune again spun away from us.

As mentioned in last year's Editorial, penalties should remain a punishment not an equal opportunity. Players missing spot kicks are pilloried. You might just as well put them in the stocks. Tossing a coin would be kinder, but the only fair answer is playing on until a "proper" goal is scored. It is still possible to win a knock-out competition without scoring anything except in a shoot-out. How is this football?

Yet on this occasion England had been second best in the 120 minutes and the Italians deserved to go on. Interestingly enough, the media cleverly responded. Unleashing those quietly kept in the background during the era of erupting euphoria, this cunningly allowed for a re-evaluation of the situation. Moving the goalposts was a softening of the stance for those who had unreservedly championed the cause weeks beforehand.

Roy and co. returned from the Euro-"rovers" excursion with no time to lick wounds for the next battle rapidly approaches: qualifying for the World Cup 2014 in Brazil (now ranked 11th!). The last time England played there in a World Cup we lost to the USA, in the days when we still considered we had taught the funny foreigners how to play.

As far as Euro 2012 was concerned, it was sad to see that, even with five officials operating at matches, an obvious goal was missed; goalkeepers still cleared their lines outside the penalty area and a spot of GBH as the ball was running over the bye-line still flourished. A couple of penalties were harshly awarded, sound claims for others ignored. Goal-line technology is promised at last. Yet sadly racism among spectators was evident at times. Overall, the standard of football was encouraging.

Vicente Del Bosque, relaxed, if dictatorial, as the Spanish main-man, presides over a team of all the talents; instinctive, innovative and in control. How we must envy them.

But back at base camp, 20 years of the Premier League has attracted many of the best players in the world. Alas most of them are foreign. It supplied the highest number to countries in Euro 2012. Its existence is in no small measure courtesy of the income derived from television sponsorship. In 2011–12 the full England squad had in the season called upon the services of 35 different players. The Under-21s used four fewer. Whereas the seniors blooded seven uncapped at full level, the intermediates had 18 new boys. Their futures will be tested quite definitely in the months to come. Alas the Under-19s reached the semi-final of the UEFA tournament only to slip up on Greece.

Mercifully the World Cup qualifying group should hold few real terrors, but it will mean little enough. In the final analysis we need more of the F-word: flair, finesse, fluency and finish. Nothing short of this will do; the alternative is failure, yet again. It is a tall order. These are not the qualities for which we are renowned. Yet why create such fuss? We defeated Spain in a friendly match in November and FIFA ranks us fourth in the world! Power, of course, is the difference between being eccentric and just odd.

EUROPEAN GOLDEN SHOE

The European Golden Shoe award is presented to the leading goalscorer in European League football. However, the determination of the winner comes from a points system which depends on the status of the country involved. The goals total is multiplied by either two, one and a half or just by one.

Thus for the unfortunate Aleksandrs Cekulajevs of the Estonian club Narva Trans, his 46 goals yielded him only 46 points, whereas Cristiano Ronaldo who also hit as many goals for Real Madrid is placed second with 92 points!

The first six places were as follows with Lionel Messi (Barcelona) top with 100 points from 50 goals and the outright winner for 2011–12.

Lionel Messi (Barcelona)	50	100
Cristiano Ronaldo (Real Madrid)	46	92
Robin Van Persie (Arsenal)	30	60
Klaas-Jan Huntelaar (Schalke)	29	58
Zlatan Ibrahimovic (AC Milan)	28	56

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

Never sounds like a finite word but echoes of the past often reveal it as unbounded. But surely the last moments of the 2011–12 Premier League season will not be repeated? Manchester City won in overtime but the difference between their figures and runners-up Manchester United was on goals scored as otherwise they had identical records.

Such a gripping last day – and minutes – came after a season where the title was likely to stay in Manchester, but on which side? City started 14 unbeaten. United went eight before the incredible 6-1 defeat at Old Trafford to their neighbours. Sir Alex Ferguson's teams invariably respond positively to adversity and went another nine games undefeated.

Home and away defeats respectively against Blackburn Rovers and Newcastle United at the turn of the year was United's real wobble, while Roberto Mancini's team found the tides of March almost sweeping them aside including dropping their first two points at home as the gap went from five points to eight with United ahead. Yet City recovered and won their last six including the return with United who lost twice in the same period.

Manchester City used 24 different players, three of them with just one substitute appearance each. Only goalkeeper Joe Hart was ever-present. David Silva made the most appearances of the outfield players, missing two games and coming on three times from the bench. Gareth Barry and Sergio Aguero also made three substitute appearances each in missing just four times. Aguero, the title winner on the last day, was top scorer with 23, four behind Wayne Rooney at United.

The 20th Premier League season also produced a record 1,066 goals. The average per game at 2.81 was the best in the top flight for 35 years. Manchester United's 89 points was the highest by runners-up in the Premier. Only two outfield players Stephen Ward (Wolverhampton Wanderers) and Brede Hangeland (Fulham) completed 3,420 minutes without being replaced.

Of course the leading Premier League marksman was Robin Van Persie at Arsenal with 30. The Gunners finished third but 19 points adrift of the leading pair. A poor opening saw them lose four of their first seven including that amazing 8-2 reverse away to Manchester United. Inconsistency again was evident – two spells of eight without loss their most settled sequences – but they qualified for the Champions League for a 15th consecutive time.

One of the reverses at the start for Arsenal was against Tottenham Hotspur, who early on faced a rampant Manchester City before eleven unbeaten into December. But one win in nine to mid-April and losing 5-2 against Arsenal in late February did nothing to increase confidence. Even so, only a point separated them from their North London rivals and they scored in every home game; a first since 1961–62.

Newcastle might have improved on fifth place. An excellent undefeated beginning of eleven matches before six arrived without a win, followed by six victories in succession but it tailed off when they lost three of the last four. Just four points was the gap behind Spurs.

Defeated just once in the first eight games, Chelsea did not manage more than two other spells of six matches without loss. A change of manager with Andre Villas-Boas being replaced by Roberto Di Matteo was too late for better league results but produced two excellent ones in the FA Cup and outstandingly in the Champions League, the first London club so to do and the first outside the top five finishers.

Seventh was the highest for Everton all season and came after the last nine unbeaten matches and enabled them to finish a place in front of Merseyside rivals Liverpool and hoisted 1,000 PL points, the last of the seven all-present clubs so to do.

On the last day of the Premier League season and four minutes into injury time, Sergio Aguero scores Manchester City's third goal against QPR to complete a remarkable comeback and dramatically clinch the Premier League trophy. (Action Images/Carl Recine)

Liverpool's success came in the cups, with a League Cup win in March followed by an FA Cup run all the way to the final against Chelsea, having cast the Indian sign on Everton in semi-finals again. At no stage did Liverpool win more than two league games in a row. Fulham struggled for its first win. It came beating Queens Park Rangers 6-0 in the seventh. Eighth position in early March came after three successive wins. West Bromwich Albion held Manchester City to a goalless draw at The Hawthorns on Boxing Day to take ninth place; it proved their highest all season.

Swansea City would have been generally satisfied, with 14 clean sheets and several times squeezing into the top ten. Norwich City, too, had their moments. They were eighth in October and again in February, while their best run was seven with only one reverse. Sunderland had a new manager during the term with Martin O'Neill taking command. But they slipped away with no wins in the last eight, having started the season with one win in the first eight.

Stoke City gave a good account of themselves in Europe, but a bright August was not maintained. Four wins in a row to mid-December but then no victory in the last six of the season and only 36 goals overall. Yet escape artists personified were Wigan Athletic. Suffering eight defeats in a row to November, they won seven of their last nine and accounted for Manchester United and Arsenal in successive matches!

Aston Villa won only one of their last sixteen, equalled the Premier record of 17 draws and failed to score in 15 games and scored only 37 goals. Queens Park Rangers managed the feat of alternate wins and defeats in the last 11 matches; a first in the top flight. But it saved them from relegation.

Not so Bolton Wanderers, Blackburn Rovers and Wolverhampton Wanderers, the first time three Football League founders had foundered together. Three successive wins in March stimulated hopes of recovery, but there was only one other. For Blackburn Rovers it was their lowest points total since 1978–79. Surprisingly Wolves won the first two and drew the third game, easily their most productive in 2011–12. The last win was in February, none in the last 14.

Heading back in the Premier League after four years, Reading timed their gallop to perfection beating both of their chief Championship rivals Southampton and West Ham United in a run of six successive wins to mid-April. This was achieved after a slow August and just one off the bottom in September. Dropping just two points in ten games from the end of January, the Royals went top after beating the Saints on 13 April.

Southampton lost their way after scarcely being out of first place. They appeared to be running into form with a dozen unbeaten matches under their belt before missing a penalty at Blackpool and losing on 31 April. Problems appeared before eventually snatching the second automatic place. However, one of the problems of the clubs chasing the play-off zone was their tendency to draw matches. West Ham were guilty of this. The Hammers had five in a row while sitting in second place.

But they did vanquish their rivals in a play-off tale of two cities, seeing off first Cardiff and then Birmingham to return to the Premier League at the first time of asking. Still Birmingham City could have had few complaints, ten points behind the Hammers at the final analysis. Boxing Day had seen the onset of City's best sequence with 11 without loss and, allowing for drawn affairs, were undefeated in the last nine.

Blackpool were as low as 13th by the end of October. They had two spells of seven without loss until early in the New Year to cement their launch towards a play-off berth. Cardiff City squeaked into sixth place, courtesy of not losing any of the last ten, with six draws for a season's total of 18.

Middlesbrough missed out. Second in December and still fifth in mid-March, they, too, drew 16 matches. They also won only two of their last twelve fixtures. As to Hull City they were realistically still in for play-off contention until mid-March. But goals were scarce. Leicester City dispensed with Sven-Goran Eriksson but only twice throughout contrived to win twice in a row.

In contrast Brighton & Hove Albion, the leaders in September, went searching nine games for another win. They went twelve without loss from January but there were no successes in the last eight games. For Watford, beating

Blackpool's Thomas Ince troubles West Ham United's Gary O'Neil and Mark Noble in the Championship Play-Off Final at Wembley. But the Hammers won 2-1 to earn a return to the Premier League for 2012–13. (PA)

Middlesbrough on the last day of the season took the team to the highest position of eleventh. On 5 November they had been 21st – after losing at Middlesbrough!

Derby County were still fifth at the end of October but during the season they failed to score in sixteen matches. Seventh at the end of December, Burnley scraped only seven more wins, so heading for mid-table at best. Leeds back in the Championship, sailing along nicely in mid-season and fifth early December, yet subsequently no more than two wins in succession.

Ipswich Town were 21st on 31 January when they defeated West Ham United 5-1 and improved to finish mid-table. Only an undefeated flourish in the last seven helped Millwall who had been 21st in early February. Crystal Palace were third at the end of October then failed to score in five games. They pulled themselves together but no wins came in the last nine.

For Peterborough United, the second half of the season was undistinguished, five without defeat at the turn of the year the best for Posh. However at Nottingham Forest they went seven games without scoring and achieving just one point. In fact in 19 games they failed to score.

Bristol City only saved themselves from the drop with an unbeaten run of eight at the end of the campaign and Barnsley were fortunate to miss the danger zone after failing to score more than one goal in five of their last fifteen!

Portsmouth, Coventry City and Doncaster Rovers were the relegated trio. Portsmouth would just have avoided it without the ten-point deduction for going into administration. Nine goals without a win was their poorest period into March. Coventry were never out of the bottom three from the end of October and even seven undefeated to the beginning of March was not enough. Doncaster Rovers claimed only two goals and one point in their first seven outings, and overall had 15 games in which they failed to score once.

Apart from a March wobble of three matches and just one point, League One champions Charlton Athletic enjoyed a splendid season and topped a century of points in the process. The struggle for runners-up position was an all-Sheffield affair. Wednesday prevailed thanks to a superb run at the end of the season - 14 undefeated matches in which only three were drawn. City rivals United lost the services of their leading scorer for the last three matches and in the later play-offs.

As it was, Huddersfield Town emerged having en route broken Nottingham Forest's record of consecutive League matches without defeat. They needed to recover after losing their way a little in April, but took care of Milton Keynes Dons and Sheffield United in the play-offs, the latter only following a marathon of 22 penalties. MK Dons topped a century of goals in League and Cup games and were one of the early leaders in September.

Stevenage snared sixth place with four wins and a draw in the last five outings and, but for an enormous tally of 19 drawn matches, might well have obtained automatic promotion. For Notts County inconsistency was their undoing. Only one run of six without defeat offered any springboard towards the middle of March.

Carlisle United seemed to be heading for at least sixth place until they were let down with just one win in the last seven, while Brentford placed fourth in the opening games, faltered when they managed to win only one of the last five after five wins in succession. Colchester United topped the draw lists with no fewer than 20 of them. There was just one win in the last 13.

Bournemouth, bottom but one in September, raised themselves to eighth by early January but shortly afterwards lost five times on the trot. Tranmere Rovers looked in real danger when mid-season they won only one game in nineteen before sustaining a revival in March. Hartlepool United, third at the end of September, slipped to seventeenth by early January before heading towards mid-table.

A wretched run of 13 without a win and just six points was a concern for Bury into March before three wins in a row steadied them. Conversely Preston North End won seven from the middle of August before failing to win one of the next nine. There were only two wins in the last seventeen. Oldham Athletic had only three wins in the last 15 matches and never had more than two in a row.

Yeovil Town had held up the rest of the teams by 5 November, but rocketed up with ten wins in the second half of the season. Scunthorpe United steered themselves out of trouble with no defeats in ten to early April and were the draw champions with 22. Walsall came close to emulating them sharing the spoils 20 times, yet still had to draw with Huddersfield and win at MK Dons on the last day. Leyton Orient, too, were worried and won just one of their last eight again following a disappointing start.

So the unlucky foursome was Wycombe Wanderers, Chesterfield, Exeter City and Rochdale. Wycombe hovered around the relegation zone most of the season despite seven without defeat into April. Chesterfield's consolation was winning the Johnstone's Paint Trophy. They had gone 17 league games without winning to mid-January. Exeter scraped just two wins in the last 14 and Rochdale remained in the bottom four from late November.

Swindon Town became champions of League Two, ten wins in succession to the end of February really hitting all serious opposition. The only blow was losing the JPT. Shrewsbury Town and Crawley Town accompanied them on automatic promotion, Shrewsbury after nine without defeat into late April. However Crawley had poor spells between two sequences of 13 without loss.

Bottom in August, Crewe Alexandra came through for the final play-off success with the best run of any club over the last third of the season: 16 without loss and none in the play-offs. Cheltenham Town, their victims at Wembley, were still second in early March but were hampered by no wins in seven. Southend United, too, were at their best to the end of November and again when top in mid-February. But it was all change after beating Crewe. Torquay United lost to Cheltenham in the play-offs after a good second half of the season losing just five times.

Gillingham were erratic: no loss in the first four, none in the last quartet. In between there were better and poorer periods. Oxford United, fourth at the end of October, had no wins in the last seven. Rotherham United looked useful in September but went nine without a win shortly afterwards. Aldershot Town, too, were inconsistent, earning a club record six wins in a row after six without one.

Port Vale were hit with a ten-point deduction; eight undefeated to early March its high spot. Bristol Rovers shrugged off a unimpressive first half of the term and enjoyed occasional bursts of goal scoring – a seven and two fives.

Matters appeared to be looking up for Accrington Stanley with ten unbeaten to the end of January, but it was a false dawn. Morecambe led at the end of September, but again there were no sustained spells afterwards, while AFC Wimbledon, third in October, produced no further wins until January.

Burton Albion were fifth on Boxing Day before enduring 16 games without another win bonus. Bradford City won three in a row in December but hovered above the danger zone thereafter. Dagenham & Redbridge pulled off a Houdini act. Between the end of August and the middle of December they won just once, yet lost just one of the last ten.

Northampton Town were bottom on 3 March but won four of the next five to stay out of the drop zone. Plymouth Argyle as well snatched their first win at the end of September and remained bottom in January before picking up sufficient points, whereas Barnet had to win their last two games as they had gone 17 with just one win.

Back to the Conference arena went Hereford United and Macclesfield Town. Hereford had two spells of eight without a win and despite ending with two wins and two draws it was not enough. Macclesfield failed to win a match in 2012 with the final 23 yielding just seven points. So now York City are back in the Football League with new boys Fleetwood Town.

Reading's Adam Le Fondre negotiates Southampton goalkeeper Kelvin Davis to score his team's third goal in a top-of-the table 3-1 victory at St Mary's in April. Reading went on to win the Championship, Southampton claiming the other automatic promotion place. (PA)

ACCRINGTON STANLEY FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Accrington Football Club, founder members of the Football League in 1888, were not connected with Accrington Stanley. In fact both clubs ran concurrently between 1891 when Stanley were formed and 1895 when Accrington FC folded. Actually Stanley Villa was the original name, those responsible for forming the club living in Stanley Street and using the Stanley Arms as their meeting place. They became Accrington Stanley in 1893. In 1894–95 they joined the Accrington & District League, playing at Moorhead Park. Subsequently they played in the North-East Lancashire Combination and the Lancashire Combination before becoming founder members of the Third Division (North) in 1921, two years after moving to Peel Park. In 1962 they resigned from the Football League, were wound up, re-formed in 1963, disbanded in 1966 only to restart as Accrington Stanley (1968), returning to the Lancashire Combination in 1970.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Accrington Stanley were grateful to Billy Watkinson for his 23 League goals in 1951–52 that helped towards avoiding relegation by one point. The former Liverpool forward originally with Prescot Cables made over 100 appearances at centre or on the wing before moving to Halifax Town.

FOUNDATION

While the history of AFC Wimbledon is straightforward since it was a new club formed in 2002, there were in effect two clubs operating for two years with Wimbledon connections. The other club was MK Dons, of course. In August 2001, the Football League had rejected the existing Wimbledon's application to move to Milton Keynes. In May 2002, they rejected local sites and were given permission to move by an independent commission set up by the Football League. AFC Wimbledon was founded in the summer of 2002 and held its first trials on Wimbledon Common. In subsequent years, there was considerable debate over the rightful home of the trophies obtained by the former Wimbledon football club. In October 2006, an agreement was reached between Milton Keynes Dons FC, its Supporters Association, the Wimbledon Independent Supporters Association and the Football Supporters Federation to transfer such trophies and honours to the London Borough of Merton.

ALDERSHOT TOWN — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

It was through the initiative of Councillor Jack White, a local newsagent, who immediately captured the interest of the Town Clerk D. Llewellyn Griffiths, that Aldershot Town was formed in 1926. Having established a limited liability company under the chairmanship of Norman Clinton, an Aldershot resident and chairman of the Hampshire County FA, they rented the Recreation Ground from the Aldershot Borough Council. Admitted to the Southern League for 1927–28, they were elected to the Football League in 1932 but were removed from the competition in March 1992 and their record expunged. Re-formed almost immediately as Aldershot Town Football Club.

ARSENAL

FOUNDATION

Formed by workers at the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich in 1886, they began as Dial Square (name of one of the workshops), and included two former Nottingham Forest players, Fred Beardsley and Morris Bates. Beardsley wrote to his old club seeking help and they provided the new club with a full set of red jerseys and a ball. The club became known as the 'Woolwich Reds' although their official title soon after formation was Woolwich Arsenal.

FOUNDATION

Cricketing enthusiasts of Villa Cross Wesleyan Chapel, Aston, Birmingham decided to form a football club during the winter of 1874–75. Football clubs were few and far between in the Birmingham area and in their first game against Aston Brook St Mary's rugby team they played one half rugby and the other soccer. In 1876 they were joined by Scottish soccer enthusiast George Ramsay who was immediately appointed captain and went on to lead Aston Villa from obscurity to one of the country's top clubs in a period of less than ten years.

Stanley Matthews had several deputies for his right-wing berth at Blackpool, but few emulated the one outing of 17-year-old Ken Booth on 6 October 1956 at Burnley. He scored once in a 2-2 draw (Jackie Mudie the other). He later played frequently for Bradford (PA), Workington and Southport.

BOLTON WANDERERS — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

In 1874 boys of Christ Church Sunday School, Blackburn Street, led by their master Thomas Ogden, established a football club which went under the name of the school and whose president was vicar of Christ Church. Membership was 6d (two and a half pence). When their president began to lay down too many rules about the use of church premises, the club broke away and formed Bolton Wanderers in 1877, holding their earliest meetings at the Gladstone Hotel.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Golden Goals are nothing new. In 1945–46 Bournemouth met Queens Park Rangers in a Third Division (South) Cup semi-final. No goals were scored in 90 minutes or three periods of extra time, so it was agreed on the first goal. Jack Kirkham did it for the Cherries after 136 minutes.

BRADFORD CITY — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Bradford was a rugby stronghold around the turn of the 20th century but after Manningham RFC held an archery contest to help them out of financial difficulties in 1903, they were persuaded to give up the handling code and turn to soccer. So they formed Bradford City and continued at Valley Parade. Recognising this as an opportunity to spread the dribbling code in this part of Yorkshire, the Football League immediately accepted the new club's first application for membership of the Second Division.

BRIGHTON & HOVE ALBION FL Championship

FOUNDATION

A professional club Brighton United was formed in November 1897 at the Imperial Hotel, Queen's Road, but folded in March 1900 after less than two seasons in the Southern League at the County Ground. An amateur team Brighton & Hove Rangers was then formed by some prominent United supporters and after one season at Withdean, decided to turn semi-professional and play at the County Ground. Rangers were accepted into the Southern League but folded in June 1901. John Jackson, the former United manager, organised a meeting at the Seven Stars public house, Ship Street on 24 June 1901 at which a new third club Brighton & Hove United was formed. They took over Rangers' place in the Southern League and pitch at County Ground. The name was changed to Brighton & Hove Albion before a match was played because of objections by Hove FC.

BRISTOL CITY — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

The name Bristol City came into being in 1897 when the Bristol South End club, formed three years earlier, decided to adopt professionalism and apply for admission to the Southern League after competing in the Western League. The historic meeting was held at the Albert Hall, Bedminster. Bristol City employed Sam Hollis from Woolwich Arsenal as manager and gave him £40 to buy players. In 1900 they merged with Bedminster, another leading Bristol club.

FOUNDATION

Bristol Rovers were formed at a meeting in Stapleton Road, Eastville, in 1883. However, they first went under the name of the Black Arabs (wearing black shirts). Changing their name to Eastville Rovers in their second season in 1888–89, they won the Gloucestershire Senior Cup. Original members of the Bristol & District League in 1892, this eventually became the Western League and Eastville Rovers adopted professionalism in 1897.

BURTON ALBION — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Once upon a time there were three Football League clubs bearing the name Burton. Then there was none. In reality it had been two. Originally Burton Swifts and Burton Wanderers competed in it until 1901 when they amalgamated to form Burton United. This club disbanded in 1910. There was no senior club representing the town until 1924 when Burton Town, formerly known as Burton All Saints, played in the Birmingham & District League, subsequently joining the Midland League in 1935–36. When the Second World War broke out the club fielded a team in a truncated version of the Birmingham & District League taking over from the club's reserves. But it was not revived in peacetime. So it was not until a further decade that a club bearing the name of Burton reappeared. Founded in 1950 Burton Albion made progress from the Birmingham & District League, too, then into the Southern League and because of its geographical situation later had spells in the Northern Premier League. In April 2009 Burton Albion restored the name of the town to the Football League competition as champions of the Blue Square Premier League.

CARLISLE UNITED — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

Carlisle United came into being when members of Shaddongate United voted to change its name on 17 May 1904. The new club was admitted to the Second Division of the Lancashire Combination in 1905–06, winning promotion the following season. Devonshire Park was officially opened on 2 September 1905, when St Helens Town were the visitors. Despite defeat in a disappointing 3–2 start, a respectable mid-table position was achieved.

CHARLTON ATHLETIC — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

The club was formed on 9 June 1905, by a group of 14- and 15-year-old youths living in streets by the Thames in the area which now borders the Thames Barrier. The club's progress through local leagues was so rapid that after the First World War they joined the Kent League where they spent a season before turning professional and joining the Southern League in 1920. A year later they were elected to the Football League's Division 3 (South).

FOUNDATION

Chelsea may never have existed but for the fact that Fulham rejected an offer to rent the Stamford Bridge ground from Mr H. A. Mears who had owned it since 1904. Fortunately he was determined to develop it as a football stadium rather than sell it to the Great Western Railway and got together with Frederick Parker, who persuaded Mears of the financial advantages of developing a major sporting venue. Chelsea FC was formed in 1905 and applications made to join both the Southern League and Football League. The latter competition was decided upon because of its comparatively meagre representation in the south of England.

CHELTENHAM TOWN FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Although a scratch team representing Cheltenham played a match against Gloucester in 1884, the earliest recorded match for Cheltenham Town FC was a friendly against Dean Close School on 12 March 1892. The School won 4–3 and the match was played at Prestbury (half a mile from Whaddon Road). Cheltenham Town played Wednesday afternoon friendlies at a local cricket ground until entering the Mid Gloucester League. In those days the club played in deep red coloured shirts and were nicknamed 'the Rubies'. The club moved to Whaddon Lane for season 1901–02 and changed to red and white colours two years later.

CHESTERFIELD — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Chesterfield are fourth only to Stoke, Notts County and Nottingham Forest in age for they can trace their existence as far back as 1866, although it is fair to say that they were somewhat casual in the first few years of their history, playing only a few friendlies a year. However, their rules of 1871 are still in existence, showing an annual membership of 2s (10p), but it was not until 1891 that they won a trophy (the Barnes Cup) and followed this a year later by winning the Sheffield Cup, Barnes Cup and the Derbyshire Junior Cup.

CRAWLEY TOWN — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

Formed in 1896, Crawley Town initially entered the West Sussex League before switching to the mid-Sussex League in 1901, winning the Second Division in its second season. The club remained at such level until 1951 when it became members of the Sussex County League and five years later moved to the Metropolitan League while remaining as an amateur club. It was not until 1962 that the club turned semi-professional and a year later, joined the Southern League. Many honours came the club's way, but the most successful run was achieved in 2010–11 when they reached the fifth round of the FA Cup and played before a crowd of 74,778 spectators at Old Trafford against Manchester United. Crawley Town spent 48 years at the Town Mead ground before a new site was occupied at Broadfield in 1997, ideally suited to access from the neighbouring motorway. History was also made on 9 April when the team won promotion to the Football League after beating Tamworth 3-0 to stretch their unbeaten League record to 26 games. They finished the season with a Conference record points total of 105 and at the same time, established another milestone for the longest unbeaten run, having extended it to 30 matches by the end of the season.

CRYSTAL PALACE — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

There was a Crystal Palace club as early as 1861 but the present organisation was born in 1905 after the formation of a club by the company that controlled the Crystal Palace (building) had been rejected by the FA, who did not like the idea of the Cup Final hosts running their own club. A separate company had to be formed and they had their home on the old Cup Final ground until 1915.

DAGENHAM & REDBRIDGE FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

The roots of Dagenham & Redbridge lie firmly in the Essex side of the Greater London area. Though formed only in 1992 their complex origins date back to the 19th century involving Ilford (founded 1881) and Leytonstone (1886) who merged in 1979 to form Leytonstone-Ilford. They and Walthamstow Avenue (1900) joined together in 1988 to become Redbridge Forest who in turn merged with Dagenham FC (1949) in 1992. Victoria Road has existed as a football ground since 1917. Initially used by Sterling Works, in the summer of 1955 Briggs Sports vacated the premises and Dagenham FC moved in and the pitch was enclosed.

FOUNDATION

St Domingo Church Sunday School formed a football club in 1878 which played at Stanley Park. Enthusiasm was so great that in November 1879 they decided to expand membership and changed the name to Everton, playing in black shirts with a scarlet sash and nicknamed the 'Black Watch'. After wearing several other colours, royal blue was adopted in 1901.

DID YOU KNOW ?

In a two-week period in February 1954, Everton scored 20 goals in three successive Second Division matches. On the 13th they won 6-2 at Derby County to start the trio off. Amazingly it was also the third time in history they had hit six away from home and all against Derby.

EXETER CITY — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Exeter City was formed in 1904 by the amalgamation of St Sidwell's United and Exeter United. The club first played in the East Devon League and then the Plymouth & District League. After an exhibition match between West Bromwich Albion and Woolwich Arsenal, which was held to test interest as Exeter was then a rugby stronghold, it was decided to form Exeter City. At a meeting at the Red Lion Hotel in 1908, the club turned professional.

FLEETWOOD TOWN — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Originally formed in 1908 as Fleetwood FC, it was liquidated in 1976. Re-formed as Fleetwood Town in 1977, it folded again in 1996. Once again, it was re-formed a year later as Fleetwood Wanderers, but a sponsorship deal saw the club's name immediately changed to Fleetwood Freeport through the local retail outlet centre. This sponsorship ended in 2002, but since then local energy businessman Andy Pilley took charge and the club has risen through the non-league pyramid until finally achieving Football League status in 2012 as Fleetwood Town.

GILLINGHAM — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

The success of the pioneering Royal Engineers of Chatham excited the interest of the residents of the Medway Towns and led to the formation of many clubs including Excelsior. After winning the Kent Junior Cup and the Chatham District League in 1893, Excelsior decided to go for bigger things and it was at a meeting in the Napier Arms, Brompton, in 1893 that New Brompton FC came into being, buying and developing the ground which is now Priestfield Stadium. They changed their name to Gillingham in 1913, when they also changed their strip from black and white stripes to predominantly blue.

HARTLEPOOL UNITED FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

The inspiration for the launching of Hartlepool United was the West Hartlepool club which won the FA Amateur Cup in 1904–05. They had been in existence since 1881 and their cup success led in 1908 to the formation of the new professional concern which first joined the North-Eastern League. In those days they were Hartlepools United and won the Durham Senior Cup in their first two seasons.

HUDDERSFIELD TOWN FL Championship

FOUNDATION

A meeting, attended largely by members of the Huddersfield & District FA, was held at the Imperial Hotel in 1906 to discuss the feasibility of establishing a football club in this rugby stronghold. However, it was not until a man with both the enthusiasm and the money to back the scheme came on the scene that real progress was made. This benefactor was Mr Hilton Crowther and it was at a meeting at the Albert Hotel in 1908 that the club formally came into existence with an investment of £2,000 and joined the North-Eastern League.

HULL CITY — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

The enthusiasts who formed Hull City in 1904 were brave men indeed. More than that, they were audacious for they immediately put the club on the map in this Rugby League fortress by obtaining a three-year agreement with the Hull Rugby League club to rent their ground! They had obtained quite a number of conversions to the dribbling code, before the Rugby League forbade the use of any of their club grounds by Association Football clubs. By that time, Hull City were well away, having entered the FA Cup in their initial season and the Football League, Second Division after only a year.

IPSWICH TOWN — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

Considering that Ipswich Town only reached the Football League in 1938, many people outside of East Anglia may be surprised to learn that this club was formed at a meeting held in the Town Hall as far back as 1878 when Mr T. C. Cobbold, MP, was voted president. Originally it was the Ipswich Association FC to distinguish it from the older Ipswich Football Club which played rugby. These two amalgamated in 1888 and the handling game was dropped in 1893.

LEEDS UNITED — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

Immediately the Leeds City club (founded in 1904) was wound up by the FA in October 1919, following allegations of illegal payments to players, a meeting was called by a Leeds solicitor, Mr Alf Masser, at which Leeds United was formed. They joined the Midland League, playing their first game in that competition in November 1919. It was in this same month that the new club had discussions with the directors of a virtually bankrupt Huddersfield Town who wanted to move to Leeds in an amalgamation. But Huddersfield survived even that crisis.

LEICESTER CITY — FL Championship

FOUNDATION

In 1884 a number of young footballers, who were mostly old boys of Wyggeston School, held a meeting at a house on the Roman Fosse Way and formed Leicester Fosse FC. They collected 9d (less than 4p) towards the cost of a ball, plus the same amount for membership. Their first professional, Harry Webb from Stafford Rangers, was signed in 1888 for 2s 6d (12p) per week, plus travelling expenses.

LEYTON ORIENT — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

There is some doubt about the foundation of Leyton Orient, and, indeed, some confusion with clubs like Leyton and Clapton over their early history. As regards the foundation, the most favoured version is that Leyton Orient was formed originally by members of Homerton Theological College who established Glyn Cricket Club in 1881 and then carried on through the following winter playing football. Eventually many employees of the Orient Shipping Line became involved and so the name Orient was chosen in 1888.

LIVERPOOL — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

But for a dispute between Everton FC and their landlord at Anfield in 1892, there may never have been a Liverpool club. This dispute persuaded the majority of Evertonians to quit Anfield for Goodison Park, leaving the landlord, Mr John Houlding, to form a new club. He originally tried to retain the name 'Everton' but when this failed, he founded Liverpool Association FC on 15 March 1892.

MANCHESTER CITY — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

Manchester City was formed as a limited company in 1894 after their predecessors Ardwick had been forced into bankruptcy. However, many historians like to trace the club's lineage as far back as 1880 when St Mark's Church, West Gorton added a football section to their cricket club. They amalgamated with Gorton Athletic in 1884 as Gorton FC. Because of a change of ground they became Ardwick in 1887.

MANCHESTER UNITED — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

Manchester United was formed as comparatively recently as 1902 after their predecessors, Newton Heath, went bankrupt. However, it is usual to give the date of the club's foundation as 1878 when the dining room committee of the carriage and waggon works of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company formed Newton Heath L and YR Cricket and Football Club. They won the Manchester Cup in 1886 and as Newton Heath FC were admitted to the Second Division in 1892.

NEWCASTLE UNITED — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

In October 1882 a club called Stanley, which had been formed in 1881, changed its name to Newcastle East End to avoid confusion with two other local clubs, Stanley Nops and Stanley Albion. Shortly afterwards another club, Rosewood, merged with them. Newcastle West End had been formed in August 1882 and they played on a pitch which was part of the Town Moor. They moved to Brandling Park in 1885 and St James' Park 1886 (home of Newcastle Rangers). West End went out of existence after a bad run and the remaining committee men invited East End to move to St James' Park. They accepted and, at a meeting in Bath Lane Hall in 1892, changed their name to Newcastle United.

NORWICH CITY — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

Formed in 1902, largely through the initiative of two local schoolmasters who called a meeting at the Criterion Cafe, they were shocked by an FA Commission which in 1904 declared the club professional and ejected them from the FA Amateur Cup. Known originally as the Forest Football Club, the game which first drew the founders together was 'shinney', a form of hockey. When they determined to change to football in 1865, one of their first moves was to buy a set of red caps to wear on the field.

OLDHAM ATHLETIC — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

It was in 1895 that John Garland, the landlord of the Featherstall and Junction Hotel, decided to form a football club. As Pine Villa they played in the Oldham Junior League. In 1899 the local professional club, Oldham County, went out of existence and one of the liquidators persuaded Pine Villa to take over their ground at Sheepfoot Lane and change their name to Oldham Athletic.

OXFORD UNITED — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

There had been an Oxford United club around the time of World War I but only in the Oxfordshire Thursday League and there is no connection with the modern club which began as Headington in 1893, adding 'United' a year later. Playing first on Quarry Fields and subsequently Wootten's Fields, they owe much to a Dr Hitchings for their early development.

PETERBOROUGH UNITED FL Championship

FOUNDATION

The old Peterborough & Fletton club, founded in 1923, was suspended by the FA during season 1932–33 and disbanded. Local enthusiasts determined to carry on and in 1934 a new professional club, Peterborough United, was formed and entered the Midland League the following year. Peterborough's first success came in 1939–40, but from 1955–56 to 1959–60 they won five successive titles. During the 1958–59 season they were undefeated in the Midland League. They reached the third round of the FA Cup, won the Northamptonshire Senior Cup, the Maunsell Cup and were runners-up in the East Anglian Cup.

PLYMOUTH ARGYLE — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

The club was formed in September 1886 as the Argyle Athletic Club by former public and private school pupils who wanted to continue playing the game. The meeting was held in a room above the Borough Arms (a coffee house), Bedford Street, Plymouth. It was common then to choose a local street/terrace as a club name and Argyle or Argyll was a fashionable name throughout the land due to Queen Victoria's great interest in Scotland.

A team of professionals was signed up by manager Frank Brettell and entry to the Southern League obtained for the new club's September 1899 kick-off.

PRESTON NORTH END FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

North End Cricket and Rugby Club, which was formed in 1863, indulged in most sports before taking up soccer in about 1879. In 1881 they decided to stick to football to the exclusion of other sports and even a 16–0 drubbing by Blackburn Rovers in an invitation game at Deepdale, a few weeks after taking this decision, did not deter them for they immediately became affiliated to the Lancashire FA.

QUEENS PARK RANGERS — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

There is an element of doubt about the date of the foundation of this club, but it is believed that in either 1885 or 1886 it was formed through the amalgamation of Christchurch Rangers and St Jude's Institute FC. The leading light was George Wodehouse, whose family maintained a connection with the club until comparatively recent times. Most of the players came from the Queen's Park district so this name was adopted after a year as St Jude's Institute.

Frank Bedingfield was Queens Park Rangers' leading goalscorer in 1899–1900 with 21 Southern League and Cup goals. A short, stocky centre-forward, tragically to die at 27, he was previously with Yarmouth, Rushden and Aston Villa where he scored in his only first team game there.

FOUNDATION

Considering the love of rugby in their area, it is not surprising that Rochdale had difficulty in establishing an Association Football club. The earlier Rochdale Town club formed in 1900 went out of existence in 1907 when the present club was immediately established and joined the Manchester League, before graduating to the Lancashire Combination in 1908.

SCUNTHORPE UNITED FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

The year of foundation for Scunthorpe United has often been quoted as 1910, but the club can trace its history back to 1899 when Brumby Hall FC, who played on the Old Showground, consolidated their position by amalgamating with some other clubs and changing their name to Scunthorpe United. The year 1910 was when that club amalgamated with North Lindsey United as Scunthorpe and Lindsey United. The link is Mr W. T. Lockwood whose chairmanship covers both years.

STEVENAGE — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

There have been several clubs associated with the town of Stevenage. Stevenage Town was formed in 1884. They absorbed Stevenage Rangers in 1955 and later played at Broadhall Way. The club went into liquidation in 1968 and Stevenage Athletic was formed, but they, too, followed a similar path in 1976. Then Stevenage Borough was founded. The Broadhall Way pitch was dug up and remained unused for three years. Thus the new club started its life in the modest surrounds of the King George V playing fields with a roped-off ground in the Chiltern League. A change of competition followed to the Wallspan Southern Combination and by 1980 the club returned to the council-owned Broadhall Way when "Borough" was added to the name. Entry into the United Counties League was so successful the league and cup were won in the first season. On to the Isthmian League Division Two and the climb up the pyramid continued. In 1995–96 Stevenage Borough won the Conference but was denied a place in the Football League as the ground did not measure up to the competition's standards. Subsequent improvements changed this and the 7,100 capacity venue became one of the best appointed grounds in non-league football. After winning elevation to the Football League the club dropped Borough from its title.

STOKE CITY — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

The date of the formation of this club has long been in doubt. The year 1863 was claimed, but more recent research by local club historian Wade Martin has uncovered nothing earlier than 1868, when a couple of Old Carthusians, who were apprentices at the local works of the old North Staffordshire Railway Company, met with some others from that works, to form Stoke Ramblers. It should also be noted that the old Stoke club went bankrupt in 1908 when a new club was formed.

SUNDERLAND — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

A Scottish schoolmaster named James Allan, working at Hendon Board School, took the initiative in the foundation of Sunderland in 1879 when they were formed as The Sunderland and District Teachers' Association FC at a meeting in the Adults School, Norfolk Street. Due to financial difficulties, they quickly allowed members from outside the teaching profession and so became Sunderland AFC in October 1880.

SWINDON TOWN — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

It is generally accepted that Swindon Town came into being in 1881, although there is no firm evidence that the club's founder, Rev. William Pitt, captain of the Spartans (an offshoot of a cricket club), changed his club's name to Swindon Town before 1883, when the Spartans amalgamated with St Mark's Young Men's Friendly Society.

TORQUAY UNITED — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

The idea of establishing a Torquay club was agreed by old boys of Torquay College and Torbay College, while sitting in Princess Gardens listening to the band. A proper meeting was subsequently held at Tor Abbey Hotel at which officers were elected. This was on 1 May 1899 and the club's first competition was the Eastern League (later known as the East Devon League). As an amateur club it played at Teignmouth Road, Torquay Recreation Ground and Cricket Field Road before settling down for four years at Torquay Cricket Ground where the rugby club now plays. They became Torquay United in 1921 after merging with Babbacombe FC.

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

The Hotspur Football Club was formed from an older cricket club in 1882. Most of the founders were old boys of St John's Presbyterian School and Tottenham Grammar School. The Casey brothers were well to the fore as the family provided the club's first goalposts (painted blue and white) and their first ball. They soon adopted the local YMCA as their meeting place, but after a couple of moves settled at the Red House, which is still their headquarters, although now known simply as 748 High Road.

TRANMERE ROVERS — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

Formed in 1884 as Belmont they adopted their present title the following year and eventually joined their first league, the West Lancashire League, in 1889–90, the same year as their first success in the Wirral Challenge Cup. The club almost folded in 1899–1900 when all the players left en bloc to join a rival club, but they survived the crisis and went from strength to strength, winning the 'Combination' title in 1907–08 and the Lancashire Combination in 1913–14. They joined the Football League in 1921 from the Central League.

WALSALL — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

Two of the leading clubs around Walsall in the 1880s were Walsall Swifts (formed 1877) and Walsall Town (formed 1879). The Swifts were winners of the Birmingham Senior Cup in 1881, while the Town reached the 4th round (5th round modern equivalent) of the FA Cup in 1883. These clubs amalgamated as Walsall Town Swifts in 1888, becoming simply Walsall in 1895.

DID YOU KNOW?

Amazingly, Walsall went more than two and a half years without being involved in a drawn Football League match. Forty-four games were involved from 6 January 1894 to 7 September 1896. But before re-election in 1896 they had played Midland League football 1895–96!

WEST BROMWICH ALBION — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

There is a well known story that when employees of Salter's Spring Works in West Bromwich decided to form a football club, they had to send someone to the nearby Association Football stronghold of Wednesbury to purchase a football. A weekly subscription of 2d (less than 1p) was imposed and the name of the new club was West Bromwich Strollers.

WEST HAM UNITED — FA Premiership

FOUNDATION

Thames Iron Works FC was formed by employees of this famous shipbuilding company in 1895 and entered the FA Cup in their initial season at Chatham and the London League in their second. The committee wanted to introduce professional players, so Thames Iron Works was wound up in June 1900 and relaunched a month later as West Ham United.

WYCOMBE WANDERERS FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

In 1887 a group of young furniture trade workers called a meeting at the Steam Engine public house with the aim of forming a football club and entering junior football. It is thought that they were named after the famous FA Cup winners, The Wanderers, who had visited the town in 1877 for a tie with the original High Wycombe club. It is also possible that they played informally before their formation, although there is no proof of this.

YEOVIL TOWN — FL Championship 1

FOUNDATION

One of the prime movers of Yeovil football was Ernest J. Sercombe. His association with the club began in 1895 as a playing member of Yeovil Casuals, of which team he became vice-captain and in his last season 1899–1900, he was chosen to play for Somerset against Devon. Upon the reorganisation of the club, he became secretary of the old Yeovil Town FC and with the amalgamation with Petters United in 1914, he continued to serve until his resignation in 1930.

YORK CITY — FL Championship 2

FOUNDATION

Although there was a York City club formed in 1903 by a soccer enthusiast from Darlington, this has no connection with the modern club because it went out of existence during World War I. Unlike many others of that period who restarted in 1919, York City did not re-form until 1922 and the tendency now is to ignore the modern club's pre-1922 existence.
